WORLD BOOK DAY

On Thursday 2nd March is World Book Day and we are going to celebrate and encourage a love of reading.

The day will be filled with fun activities linked to reading and in particular the book, Dear Earth by Isabel Otter and Clara Anganuzzi.

Along with these activities the children will receive a free book to take home and be able to join in with some fun dressing up.

The ideas for dressing up are below:-

- The children can come dressed as book characters.
- The children can dress in blue or green to link with the Dear Earth book.
- The children can come dressed in animal pattern clothes to link with the Dear Earth book.

STRIKE UPDATE

The second date of the NEU's strike action is next week on Tuesday 28th February and thankfully we are not going to be affected too much.

Unfortunately, school be closed for children in 1 Blue.

Children in other classes can attend as normal.
